DENISE COTE, District Judge:

An Order of January 21, 2021 directed attorney-defendant Edward Feldman to disclose by Monday, January 25 whether he had already produced to the plaintiffs all material in his possession responsive to the plaintiffs' request for Feldman's communications with Michael Sanford from December 29, 2015 to July 11, 2017. The Order further stated that if Feldman had withheld from production any communications because he contended that they were privileged or irrelevant, he must state so clearly.

In a letter of January 25, Feldman stated that, in connection with his deposition of June 22, 2017, he had already produced all responsive documents to the plaintiffs. On the same day, the plaintiffs submitted a letter stating that Feldman's statement was incorrect and attaching an email of June

22, 2017 from Feldman to the plaintiffs' attorney in which Feldman writes that he excluded from production certain communications between himself and Sanford that were privileged. It is hereby
